Dear Friends,

We would like to share with you a story of real joy! Click on the link below (Step into their story) and read how God has worked in the lives of the Keliko people of South Sudan. The people of South Sudan are dear to our hearts.

We, The Eernisses, are doing well. We have the joy of going to Thailand to visit our daughter, Abby, who is on an internship there with exploited children. We leave April 9 and return April 25. We are thankful for God's goodness in being able to take this trip. It will certainly be different than experiences we had for so many years across Africa. We ask for your prayers for safety in travel and to remain in good health. At the moment, air pollution is extreme in her location. We are taking masks and essential oils to support our respiratory systems.

We ask, too, that you would pray that we would be an encouragement to Abby and her team. Life in a different country always has its challenges.

We thank you so much for your faithful prayers and financial partnership with us. We are so blessed to be part of Bible Translation!

The story of the Keliko people of South Sudan is one of strength, courage and fierce determination. They walked through years of civil unrest and displacement, but hardships are no match for the Keliko.

They've found the secret of joy in difficult times: hope and faith built upon God's Word.

Immerse yourself in the Keliko's incredible story through an interactive digital experience. You'll be able to watch videos, listen to audio clips and discover more about their Book of Joy.
